Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law requires all Financial Institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account or changes an existing account. This Federal Requirement applies to all new customers and current customers.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, physical & mailing address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We will ask to see your driver's license and other identifying documents and copy or record information from each of them.
